

On 3/12/22 near Cooke City we saw many natural and snowmobiler triggered avalanches that broke 6-10" deep. Snow over the past week fell on a hard melt-freeze crust. Last night, 4" of new snow with moderate wind created unstable wind slabs that broke wide on the buried crust. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Cooke City
Longitude
-109.93W

Latitude

45.07N

Avalanche Details: Many natural 6-10" deep avalanches near Cooke

Cooke City, 2022-03-12